ORDER

The accused Selim Uddin is present with his learned counsel.

Judgment has been pronounced in the open court by reading the operative part thereof. The judgment prepared in separate sheets has been tagged with the case record.

By way of the said judgment, the said accused has been acquitted of the charges under sections 450/354/376 of the Indian Penal Code and under sections 4/10 of the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act, 2012 and has been set at liberty forthwith. Bail bond and surety of the said accused stands discharged with immediate effect.

Prosecution having failed to show that any offence was committed against the informant, none has been held entitled to receive compensation under the Victim Compensation Scheme of the State of Assam.

Send a copy of the judgment to each of the learned District Magistrate and to the Superintendent of Police, Karimganj.

With the above, the instant case stands dismissed on contest.

Dictated

Sessions Judge, Karimganj.
