Special (P) Case No.39/17

29/08/19

Accused Basudev Deka is produced from jail hajot. Heard the accused on point of sentence. Written in separate sheets, kept with record. Accused prays for showing him leniency.

After hearing accused on the point of sentence considering the increasing nature of offence of like nature that going in the society generally on woman and particularly on child, I am of the opinion that accused does not deserve leniency.

Accordingly, I hereby sentenced the accused Basudev Deka to undergo R.I. for 4 (four) years and to pay fine of Rs. 3,000/- i/d 6 (six) months S.I. u/s-8 of the POCSO Act and further sentenced the accused to undergo R.I. for 3 (three) years and to pay fine of Rs. 2,000/- i/d 4 (four) months S.I. u/s-354 IPC. All the sentences will run concurrently.

Period under detention is set off u/s 428 Cr.P.C. Let furnish free copy of Judgment to convicted accused Basudev Deka.

The convicted accused is told that he has right to appeal against the judgment and order of this court before Hon'ble High Court of his own, through the jail authority or through legal aid counsel.

Send copy of judgment to learned District Magistrate, Nalbari u/s- 365 CrPC.

Special Judge Nalbari